TAXPAYER WASTE—Councilman James Thriffley at the Bay St. Louis Council meeting Friday said this culvert installed at a cost of $4,000 has created a need for the culvert on St. George Street to be torn up in order to arrive at a complete drainage system for the area. He said the situation is resulting in the waste of taxpayers' money. (Staff photo—Leslie Williams)

Councilman keeps eye on Bay tax spending

By LESLIE WILLIAMS

"I am very disappointed and totally set against payment of bills in the October claims docket," exclaimed Councilman James Thriffley at the Bay St. Louis Council meeting Friday. "Money being spent on a project is getting poured down the drain," he continued, "and the days are over when we do things like that."

Thriffley said charges for the drainage system being installed at the intersection of Necaise Street and De Montluzin Avenue is his major complaint against payment of the claims docket.

Councilman Peter Benvenuti said a chain saw rented for one month is listed on the claims docket at $310. "I could have bought a chain saw and a few beers besides for that price," chuckled Benvenuti. Benvenuti said he wants the reason behind this investigated.

After the comments were made, the Bay St. Louis City Council accepted the claims docket, with the exception of the chain saw.

Councilman Thriffley voted not to accept the claims docket, and Councilmen Wilmer Seymour, Harry Farve and Peter Benvenuti voted in favor of accepting the claims docket. Councilman Fred Wagner and Mayor Larry Bennett were absent from the meeting Friday.

Thriffley said the Bay St. Louis Street Department installed a culvert under De Montluzin Avenue to prevent a section of the area from caving in.

This pipe used for drainage, he continued, is positioned lower than the culvert located on St. George Street, thereby causing water to back up, and not flow through the culvert under St. George Street.

Thriffley said the street department meets the short term objective of the area where the cave in occurred but it evades the long term objective of creating a drainage system that works properly throughout the area.

A worker on the site said the city street department will have to remove the culvert on St. George Street because it is too high, if the drainage is to work properly between De Montluzin Avenue and St. George Street, but the worker said the culvert on De Montluzin Avenue could not be installed any higher.

"The project will cost the taxpayers more than $4,000 for the installation of the culvert," and other repairs said Thriffley, "and now the city streets department is talking about tearing up the culvert on St. George Street to complete the drainage system."

Thriffley states this problem should have been anticipated.

"We councilmen were sworn in to do what is best for the city and I do not think we should waste the taxpayers' money like this," added Thriffley.

Thriffley moved that the council authorize engineers to investigate the problem at no cost.

The council will reconsider the motion later. Thriffley and Benvenuti voted in favor, and Farve and Seymour voted against the motion.

Councilman Farve said he voted no because he didn't think authorizing the engineers to study the problem was necessary.

$3 million potential funding

By RICH ADAMS

A new elementary school between Waveland and North Bay Elementaries and six new classrooms at Waveland Elementary are included in a long-range construction proposal introduced at this week's Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School Board meeting by Superintendent J. D. McCullough.

McCullough said there is potential for total funding for the new construction and renovation of existing facilities of $3,458,000.

"Prior to receiving funds from the Educational Finance Commission, a long-range construction program must be filed with the EFC," said McCullough.

"We revised our long-range plan in November, 1977, when we saw a need for certain priorities," he added.

McCullough said he had laid out priorities for construction last summer.

His first three priorities, a new cafeteria at Bay Junior High, renovation of the cafeteria at North Bay Elementary, and renovation of two classrooms at Bay Junior High, are completed or are in the process of completion, he reported.

"Our new priorities are listed under the new long-range program. Our first priority is to replace the trailers at

"I say we should replace these temporary classrooms through outside consultants working with the school board and Fred Wagner, the school board architect," he said.

The new construction suggested by McCullough, in order of priority, in-

Trial begins Monday

By RICH ADAMS

Defense Attorney James Atchison this week filed four preliminary motions on behalf of his client Charles Edward (Chuck) Depreo who goes on trial for murder Monday in Hancock County Circuit Court.

Depreo is charged with the April 8 shooting murder of Janet Ladner, arson of the Ladner house, and aggravated assault on six-year-old Joy Lynn Ladner.

Jury selection for the trial begins in Hancock County Courthouse Monday. Circuit Court Judge Leslie B. Grant will hear the case.

Atchison's preliminary filings include:

—A motion to suppress evidence obtained through a search warrant on April 22 at the home of Depreo's parents.

—A motion to suppress defendant's confession, made orally and in writing during interrogation following his arrest.

—A motion to compel the state to produce for inspection and copying any items of evidence not previously produced and in the possession of Earl E. (Buck) Ladner, including a file on the investigation of the case Ladner is alleged to have in his possession.

—And an order to produce "...all U.S. Navy records, memoranda, affidavits and files pertaining to the action of Naval authorities releasing and delivering Charles Edward Depreo to Mississippi State authorities..." on April 22.

The motion to suppress evidence requests the court to suppress as evidence any and all items seized on April 22 from the premises of Eido H. Depreo in Kiln, "including all items set out on the return of the search warrant; all other evidence, tangible or in-

Fishermen stranded in marsh overnight

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Five Hancock County residents spent Saturday night in the marsh after their motor broke down and high waves drove their boat to land. An anchor aboard the boat failed to grab hold because of high winds.

Civil Defense director Robert Boudin reports the five—Harry Cagle, Joseph and Gary Tenny, Billy and Jim Burdett—left Bayou Caddy about 7 p.m. Saturday to catch shrimp.

The five were in a 16-foot speed hull and the wife of one of the men called the Sheriff's office Sunday morning when they failed to return.

The message was relayed to Boudin about 6 a.m. Civil defense volunteers Lee Ferrell and son Ronnie left Bayou Caddy searching the coast line towards Pearl River.

Boudin in talking with a boat owner who came into Bayou Caddy was told they saw five people on the shore in the vicinity of Three Oaks. Via radio, Boudin told the Ferrells who directed their search into that vicinity.

The five were spotted several hundred yards from Three Oaks and because of the rough water, the Ferrells had to go in at Three Oaks and the stranded men walked to Ronnie Ferrell's boat.

Boudin said the five men were not dressed for the cool weather as one only had a white tee shirt on, and all five were happy to be home.

BARBARA RAPPOLD

Rappold announces candidacy

Waveland City Clerk Barbara Rappold, 45, of 112 Whispering Pines Drive, has announced her candidacy for Waveland City Council, Ward One.

Ms. Rappold has served as city clerk for the past six years. She previously was owner and operator of Dixie Belles Bakery on Coleman Avenue.

She is currently serving on the Hancock County Governor's MIDAS Committee where she has served as a member since the committee's inception.

Ms. Rappold is secretary-treasurer of the Gulf Coast Municipal Officers Association, an office she has held for the past five years.

She is also secretary of the Mississippi Municipal Clerks Association and is an internationally certified city clerk.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rappold of 404 Gordon Street, Waveland.

"I have been serving the citizens of Waveland full-time for the past six years, and I feel I understand the needs of Waveland's citizens and the workings of their City Hall better than anyone else in the city," Ms. Rappold said.

"If you feel as I do that my experience makes me especially qualified to hold this office, I would appreciate your considering me for councilman from Ward One," she added.

Ms. Rappold explained that the City's special charter allows an alderman to hold the city clerk's post.

She faces the incumbent and one other candidate in the November 7 Democratic primary in Waveland. If necessary, the Democratic runoff will be held one week later, Nov. 14.

The general election for Waveland city offices is scheduled for Dec. 5.

cludes:
Six new classrooms to be constructed at Waveland Elementary to replace the temporary trailers at North Bay Elementary.

A new elementary school located between those two schools with 12 classrooms, office space, a cafeteria, and restrooms.

New construction at the S. J. Ingram Building adjacent to the Junior High for elementary and junior high school classroom space.

A new auditorium at Bay Senior High School, so constructed to include downstairs classrooms, a band hall, mechanical drawing room, art room, and other classrooms that are needed at the school.

McCulloch explained there was a $42,000 debt remaining on construction in 1959 at North Bay. The balance will be paid off by 1984.

A current debt of $658,000 remains from the 1965 construction of the senior high school. The balance is due to be paid off in 1995.

Those figures, plus short-term construction debts of $192,660 makes a total of $892,660 currently owed by the school, McCulloch reported.

Bay St. Louis has a total yearly assessment figure of $15,600,000. Waveland's assessments equal $9,500,000 yearly, and all areas outside the cities in the district are $4,300,000, he continued.

"The total assessment figures equal $29,300,000," McCulloch explained.

He said 30 mills were designated for maintenance and operation of the schools in the district and to pay off existing bond debts.

Potential funding for new construction is figured by using 15 percent of total assessment, giving the district a $4,350,000 potential funding total, McCulloch explained.

That figure minus the $892,660 debts owed on existing bonds leaves $3,458,000 to use on new schools "if the people in the community so desire," McCulloch said.

"I recommend to the board that the temporary trailers at North Bay be closed down as soon as possible and at least six new classrooms be built at Waveland Elementary. We're all in this school district together, and the board has the right to place students where the board believes is best for the student," McCulloch said.

"This is the building program I would recommend to the school board," he continued.

"When we had grades one through twelve at what is now the junior high school, we asked for a bond issue in 1959 and 1960. The voters said we didn't need North Bay Elementary, that we wouldn't be large enough to necessitate the new school," he said.

"We met with outside consultants and found a need for the new school then, and the bond issue passed. What would we do today without North Bay Elementary," he asked.

"We tried to get a football field after that, and heard the same argument, 'What do we need a football field for? There is already one in the city.' But the good people in the district voted the project in," he added.

"Then we asked for $1,183,000 for a new high school, and heard the arguments again, but the bond issue passed by five votes," McCulloch continued.

"We went to Waveland and requested a bond issue, and it failed," he said. "But we didn't stop there."

"The hurricane came by in 1969, and the old Waveland building was so damaged that the Board of Health condemned the building. The school board had enough initiative and contacted government agencies and we were awarded a $390,000 grant which included insurance funds," McCulloch said.

McCulloch then gave his recommended price estimates for renovations of Bay schools.

As top priority items at North Bay Elementary, he recommended roof and sheet metal repairs, $24,000; repair of classroom heater furnaces, $9,000; replacement of classroom windows with weather stripped double-hung aluminum windows, $31,500; repair toilets and kitchen, $3,000; contingency allowance, $6,700; architect fees, $5,200, with a total repair bill estimated at $79,400.

For Waveland Elementary, he recommended repair of roof, $28,000; replacement of 2,000 square feet of ceiling tile, $200; repair light fixtures, $800; replacement of carpet in teacher's lounge, $500; contingency allowance, $2,500; architect fees, $2,100, with a total repair bill of $32,100.

For the junior high, he recommended repair and replacement of flooring, $7,000; replacement of wood doors and frames with metal doors and frames, 7,700; rework faulty wiring in stage area, $2,500; installation of new through wall heaters in classrooms, $37,200; repair roofing on all three junior high buildings, $7,500; repair and paint all wood and steel windows, $800; repair double-hung windows, $9,500; replacement of toilet fixtures, $18,500; refinish restrooms, $9,000; repair walk-through deck from school building to new cafeteria, $11,000; miscellaneous $500; contingency allowance, $11,000; architect fees, $10,000, with a total estimated repair bill of $131,400.

According to Wagner, he and McCulloch took trips to each of the schools in the district and went over needed repairs with the principals of each school.

"The construction and repair costs we have estimated do not call for air conditioning. We are seeking solutions to immediate problems, and I don't see air conditioning in the schools soon," Wagner said.

"In fact, our roof repairs are not being designed for air conditioning, as air conditioning requires insulation and a different type roofing material," he added.

Wagner told the board no estimate had been made on roofing materials to accommodate air conditioning.

"The schools are what the people in the community want, and right now we are in good shape for potential funding," McCulloch said.

In other board action, a motion by board member Walter Turcotte to ban suspension of students for smoking on school grounds died for lack of a second.

The present policy states if a student is found smoking, he will receive a three-day suspension for the first offense, a five-day suspension on the second offense, and possible permanent dismissal on the third offense.

Turcotte felt that a student should not miss school, but rather attend Saturday detention for punishment.

Turcotte made the motion to abolish suspension, but the motion died when no second was made.

The policy remains as originally written.

The board also approved a transportation policy, setting up policies and procedures for bus drivers to follow.

The public meeting ended as board members and McCulloch retreated behind closed doors in executive session.

Council denies performance bond request

By LESLIE WILLIAMS

The Bay St. Louis City Council refused to return a $80,000 performance bond to Wilson W. Wehre, Westwood Subdivision developer, at their meeting Friday.

Councilman James Thriffley told Wehre the Council will not release the bond until all work is completed on Vine Street, a new street between Sunset Drive and Esplanade Street.

Wehre said the work is substantially completed and he feels he should be given the bond.

Councilman Peter Benvenuti concurred with Thriffley saying, "When your contractor does his work we'll give you your bond."

Wehre reported he will have to meet the following requirements before the Council will return his bond:

—Place more material on the shoulder of Vine Street.

—Make the intersection on Vine Street smoother, because it is presently rough and scratchy.

—Eliminate a pot hole creating a puddle of water at the end of a cul-de-sac on Vine Street. The problem originated because the black topping was put on too thick which prevents the water from draining, said Wehre.

Clean-up the area generally. Wehre said he doesn't understand this fully.

Wehre said he asked the Council for the performance bond so he could pay Shaw Supply Co., the contracting firm which did the work.

UM medical chemists seeking breakthrough

University of Mississippi scientists are seeking the key to a biological puzzle, which is solved, could result in a medical breakthrough as significant as the development of steroids as drugs in the 1950s.

Researchers in the Department of Medicinal Chemistry of the University's School of Pharmacy are undertaking pioneering studies to develop peptidomimetics, which are compounds that mimic activities of peptide hormones in the body.

If their research is successful, it could improve treatment of such body disorders as high blood pressure, allergies and ulcers.

Peptide hormones produced by the body control many functions, including blood pressure and ovulation. But, peptide hormones are not useful as drugs, says Dr. Frank Gilmore, medicinal chemistry chairman.

"Peptides are not good as drugs generally because, when they are taken orally, they decompose in the stomach and have a very short lifetime," Dr. Gilmore explained.

The goal of our research is to develop a stable molecule that will mimic the effects of the peptide, but will be a good drug that will not decompose. "This is a totally new area of research, with very broad applications for the design of drugs," he said.

Several researchers at the University are working to develop compounds that mimic peptides for treatment of high blood pressure and allergies, and plans are underway for design of contraceptive and anti-ulcer drugs.

Although the concept of mimicking peptides has been proved in preliminary research at Ole Miss, the idea is a controversial one which many researchers do not yet fully accept, Dr. Gilmore said.

"Our work as well as that of others indicates that it is possible to mimic peptides with simpler, biologically stable molecules which can be used as drugs," Dr. Gilmore said. "The future of drug design using this approach is very bright, because many of the control mechanisms of body functions involve peptides."

This research program began in 1971 at the University and grew from Dr. Gilmore's work to modify peptides so they would be more stable and have longer lifetime.

"The Ole Miss work to mimic peptides is the first ever done in this research area," Dr. Gilmore said.

Working with Dr. Gilmore, doctoral student Joon-Sup

Park set out to prove that compounds could be developed to duplicate the effects of peptides. The end result of that research is to design a drug that would prevent the body's reactions to materials that cause allergies.

Two other Ole Miss scientists, Dr. Charles Panetta of the Chemistry Department and Dr. Ron Borne of the Medicinal Chemistry Department, are exploring the potential for drugs to treat high blood pressure.

Dr. Gilmore said two research studies elsewhere in the world have confirmed his hypothesis. The pain killer morphine has been shown to mimic the activity of enkephalins, peptides in the brain which prevent pain. Also, researchers have designed a molecule to mimic the peptide angiotensin, which controls blood pressure.

Ruth Auxilien leads St. Jude Hospital drive

Mrs. Ruth Auxilien of Route 2, Box 840, Bay St. Louis, has been named to head the 1978 door-to-door march in Waveland and Lakeshore for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis.

"We are proud to find such a dedicated person for this important task," Bob Espey of St. Jude's said. "St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is the only research center dedicated exclusively to the study and conquest of catastrophic diseases of children, he added. Its work, particularly in leukemia and other childhood cancers, has been internationally acclaimed and cited as a leading example for basic and clinical research, Espey continued.

"No one has ever been charged for the benefits provided by St. Jude Hospital," Espey said, "and that includes the extremely expensive total medical care provided to children enrolled in its research studies." The drive is planned for the week of October 17 thru 22.

Lott vote to reduce spending applauded

Congressman Trent Lott, R-Miss., has received the "Watchdog of the Treasury" Award from the National Associated Businessmen (NAB) for his votes during the 95th Congress to reduce wasteful government spending.

The award was presented during special ceremonies on Capitol Hill for Lott's 100 percent voting record on spending issues considered important by the NAB. The group has been rating members of Congress on their fiscal responsibility since 1964.

"This award carries a special significance this year as the American people become increasingly alarmed with outrageous government spending," Lott said.

"I am pleased to receive this award again, and I plan to continue voting for legislation that reduces wasteful government spending."

The "Watchdog of the Treasury" Award is presented each congressional session to members who vote at least two-thirds of the time for economy in government.

The NAB believes eliminating unnecessary federal spending is a crucial step toward balancing the federal budget and stopping inflation.

Museum quality quilts made, displayed at Bay Library

There was an air of festivity and excitement in the Crawford Memorial Room of the City-County Public Library Tuesday when Betsy Nolan's quilting students gathered with invited guests for a Colonial Days quilting party and a display of herloom and museum quilts.

Quilting, once called a home craft and later as a folk art, has now been graduated into the "Fine arts" class.

made by piecing method (sewing small pieces of materials together to form a design), applique (applying a pre-cut design to materials by slip-stitching or whipping), cross stitch (small crosses embroidered into a pattern), and crazy-quilt technique (old shapes of fine fabrics joined by braid or feather stitching).

The Art Institution of Chicago deserves credit for renewed interest in handmade quilts. Currently, an exhibition in two parts is underway there with a total of 50 handmade quilts of museum quality being shown through January 21.

Tourist from the East who vacation during winter months in our deep South seek out shops and persons selling hand sewn quilts - quilts which bring very fancy prices. At a small quilting frame sat Gerry Blanchard of Waveland; Rhonda Oliver, Margaret Arnos, Merry Montjoy, and Joe Pilet, all of Bay St. Louis; Evelyn Johnson of the Crump-Johnson Ranch, and instructor Betsy Nolan of Diamondhead.

This group worked alternately at quilting a youth sized tulip design quilt done in applique by the students and won in a name drawing by Gerry Blanchard.

The fine array of quilts brought for display included a crazy quilt made in 1886 and owned by Evelyn Crump Johnson.

The quilt was made by Mrs. Johnson's great-grandmother, Sarah Van Voorhees Cook, and has been passed down through four generations.

A museum quilt brought by Louis Nolan of Pass Christian is called the "Flower Garden." It consists of 8,239 miniature six sided pieces of material and was bought by Mrs. Nolan from a museum in Louisiana, Missouri - an interesting city about 60 miles from St. Louis.

The Oriental Poppy, an applique quilt made by Mrs. Carrie Spell of New Orleans and exhibited by her daughter, Gerry Blanchard, was a fine example of quilt-kit technique.

Several quilts from the exhibit will remain in the library for ten days at the request of Librarian Prima Wunsack and the public is invited to view them at their convenience.

Judges unfairly criticized

Dear Sir:

In regard to a series of out-of-town newspaper articles run last week on Hancock County Justice Court Judges, the paper stated a number of times how much four of the judges are making and how one is not getting tickets.

That newspaper never fully explained how the system works, nor did it tell of the total benefits the people of Hancock County received under the system.

The articles were intended to downgrade the entire system for political reasons.

The paper mentioned me more than any of the others. I contend there are a number of lies in the series and I have asked for a retraction.

The paper stated the judges aren't required to have any form of legal training. However, when a Justice Court judge is elected, he must attend a special training school. Justice Court judges attend a seminar once a year and special meetings throughout the year.

The paper stated that the judges only hold court once a week and in a later article retracted this statement.

We hold court once a week in the city, and are available in our offices 24 hours a day, seven days a week - whenever we are needed.

Crime goes on day and night, and affidavits and warrants have to be processed through the Justice Court at all hours.

It is not unusual to get up all hours of the night, not only for criminal cases, but for civil cases also.

That paper also stated that one month I received more money than I turned in, causing a deficit.

The truth is I did not turn in only $4,038 as reported, but rather a total of $9,812 that month to the county general fund, driver's education, library fund, and youth court.

It doesn't matter if the county does have a deficit with the judges, the system is not intended to be a money-making operation for the county anyway.

Nonetheless, the county so far this year has cleared more than $100,000 in fines.

The Justice Court Judge's office is the only self-supporting office in the state and still contributes to the general fund, yet the Justice Court Judges and constables are the only officials who have to pay their office expenses.

Other officials are furnished with secretaries and office expenses, yet we are the ones that receive all the criticism.

We feel it is good for the people of Hancock County to know how much money is going into the general fund, but we feel they should also know where it is going.

The judges in Hancock aren't the only ones making a good salary, there are others making as much or more.

If we earn $10,000, we can expect to spend at least $4,000 on office expenses, not counting Social Security and income taxes.

I am the first judge to be full time in Beat 3, which includes Crane Creek, Standard, Dedeaux, East Diamondhead and Cedar Point.

The people appreciate that I am available when needed, but there always seem to be certain people who are anxious to criticize, especially when you are doing a good job.

That out-of-state newspaper also tried to downgrade the Mississippi Highway Patrol for writing so many tickets - a service which in the final analysis is keeping deaths and accidents at a minimum.

The public should feel a lot safer knowing MHP is out on the highway doing its job, rather than sitting in a coffee shop. Incidentally, highway traffic fines in Mississippi are among the lowest in the nation.

Judges salaries are public record and are published once a month in the local paper. We have our own auditors.

John Rutherford's office should look into this matter of how out-of-state interests can come into Hancock County, conduct a so-called investigation, and then present a totally unfair picture of the situation.

Laws require broadcasters to provide equal time for balancing opinion - maybe it's time for some newspapers to be forced to be fair.

That out-of-state newspaper never fully explained how the system works, even though they said that was what they intended to do.

The judges role is to handle criminal and civil cases. We also marry people. Civil Cases include Judgements, garnishment, open accounts, seizure of wrongfully obtained property, and removal of tenants.

Criminal cases handled in Justice Court are limited to misdemeanors violations.

Misdemeanors call for a sentence in the county jail, a fine or both. The defendant has a right to a trial by jury, a lawyer, or postponement of the trial. A felony is a crime which carries a penitentiary sentence. The Justice Court judge holds a preliminary hearing (not a trial) to see if there is evidence or probable cause to bind over the defendant to the Grand Jury.

If anyone has a question or opinion about this letter, please call me at 255-7591.

Sincerely,
Lloyd Anderson

Ponder's pictures cited as poetry

To Randy Ponder,

Without a doubt those bird pictures appearing in Sunday's Echo are sheer poetry! I can almost hear the ripple of water as your beautiful ballerina with outstretched wings and pointed toes "arrives for lunch"; the "Me and My Shadow" told more than the time of day and a hungry bird. What a shot!

And the eager egret eating shrimp isn't to be sneezed at either. Congratulations.

You are blessed with a knowing heart, a seeing eye, 20-20 vision and a good camera.

We are blessed to share the beauty of your art - for photography is a fine art.

Sincerely,
Joe Pilet

Also expected to speak at the Oct. 21 banquet is Clyde Ware, community relations director for the southern territory of Sears Roebuck & Company, sponsors of the awards presentation ceremony during the banquet.

About 180 state members are expected to attend the meeting, which will be hosted by the Bay-Waveland Gun and Rod Club. The club will also sponsor a fish fry on Friday evening, Oct. 20, from 5 to 8 p.m. at Gulfport's West Side Community Center. Members and their wives are invited.

Officers and directors for the coming year will be elected during the business session.

Banquet reservations must be in by Oct. 16. Those interested may contact Frank Ladner at 467-7130.

Pass Chamber changes name

The Pass Christian Chamber of Commerce is now the "Pass Christian Area Chamber of Commerce."

The change in name was voted by the Board of Directors, approved by the membership and authorized by the Mississippi Secretary of State of the State.

The new name is more clearly descriptive of the Chamber since it is interested in the Pass Christian area and serves a definite need to the entire area, according to Chamber spokesman Dave McCutchen.

Boudin on Monday afternoon found the importance of having a radio on his own boat when he and Donald Strong were on a fishing trip in the Louisiana Marsh.

Boudin and Strong were out catching fish for a benefit fish fry Friday night at Bay St. Louis Catholic Elementary School when on the way in his motor broke down about 20 miles from home.

A call to shore enabled the two to seek aid and friends Dutch Jacquillard and Henry Monti went out and picked them up.

Boudin said if he hadn't had a radio he and Strong would have probably had to spend the night in the Marsh.

Board to meet PTO

Noonan penetrates 'wall of silence'

By RICH ADAMS

Lana Noonan, president of the North Bay Parent-Teacher Organization, aired differences with the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School Board earlier this week and convinced board members to attend a PTO meeting.

Board member Robert Hamilton said board members will confine themselves to discussing possible "minor repairs" to North Bay Elementary at tonight's PTO meeting at the school.

Ms. Noonan appeared before the Board Monday initially as a "concerned taxpayer, parent, and school patron" and later identified herself as a representative of the PTO.

"We have accomplished an unprecedented feat—we have gotten the board members, for the first time ever, to attend a PTO meeting," Ms. Noonan said.

Superintendent J. D. McCulloch told board members Ms. Noonan was at the meeting to discuss North Bay's vandalism problems, insurance, cleanliness, bathroom conditions, and the much-publicized possibility of installing air conditioning at the school. "Classrooms at North Bay are uncomfortable. The atmosphere is not conducive to learning," Ms. Noonan said.

She alleged that McCulloch had told her air conditioning was not available through Educational Finance Commission funding, and couldn't be acquired for the school.

"I found out, quite by accident, that we couldn't receive air conditioning because of the temporary trailers. I called the EFC in Jackson and they said the temporary classrooms were preventing assistance in obtaining the air conditioning," she continued.

"They said air conditioning couldn't be provided until all construction at the school was complete," she added Monday night.

"Parents are not primarily interested in getting more classroom space, we just want the temporary trailers made into permanent classrooms. Brick classrooms take up as much space as aluminum trailers," she added later.

"All the discussion in the world will not do a thing. We need action," she added.

Ms. Noonan asked McCulloch when he expected the trailers to be removed from school grounds. McCulloch responded it is up to the community to decide how long the trailers will stay.

Ms. Noonan asked the board if school supplies, stolen earlier this school year, were being replaced.

McCulloch refused to discuss the matter, saying Ms. Noonan had not included that subject on her request to come before the board.

"That was not on the agenda. I cannot talk about that. Go see Mr. Sills (North Bay Principal Bill Sills). If it is a matter for the PTO, follow provisions of Policy 18," he added.

"I don't feel like I'm asking for anything unreasonable. We've crawled on our bellies through Policy 18," said Ms. Noonan.

"I complied with policy 18. I sent 20 certified letters to board members and other people to get on this agenda. I think as a concerned citizen, I shouldn't have to crawl through Policy 18 and write 20 more letters so I can get you to hear a subject not on the agenda," she protested.

Ms. Noonan discussed the heating problems at North Bay with the board. She said she had put up with no heat in classrooms for one year, but would not stand another.

"We have applied for funding relative to the heaters," said McCulloch.

"I called (Plumber) Monty Carver Saturday morning, and he said he has all but one renovated heater ready, and he had to order parts for that one," the superintendent added.

Ms. Noonan asked about a $1,900 sign purchased this year for display in front of the senior high school.

She wanted to know if the money for the sign had actually been from a special non-budget fund, or if the board had appropriated the money.

Once again McCulloch refused to answer, saying the subject was not on the agenda.

Ms. Noonan then pleaded with the board for unity in correcting problems at the school.

"There are 637 students at North Bay, and I know I am not the only concerned parent. I come before you now as a representative of the PTO," she said.

"We came here with good hearts and are trying to do the best we can for the community. Are you willing to work with us," she asked.

"We need cooperation," said Judy McCormick, a PTO member.

"We don't need to have doors slammed in our faces," she added.

"We need to open up and get valuable information for the good of our school and good of the children," Ms. Noonan said.

"Should I have to make 18 copies of a ballot before I drop my vote in a ballot box? What we are faced with is a wall of silence, and we have no open discussion," she added.

She pleaded with the board to assign a committee to attend a PTO meeting and hear what the PTO has to say.

Board Member Robert Hamilton asked Ms. Noonan to compile a list of minor grievances prior to tonight's PTO meeting.

"If you make a list of small corrections—nothing as large as the air conditioning—I'm sure we can work with you to get them corrected, even if I have to do them myself," Hamilton said.

Trustee Maurice Singleton told Ms. Noonan the most help she and the PTO could be is if the PTO began organizing a campaign for the bond issue discussed at the meeting.

"You come yourself and campaign for your bond issue. I am not your campaign manager," Ms. Noonan said.

All board members present then agreed to meet with the PTO tonight at the North Bay cafeteria.

Ms. Noonan thanked the board for recognizing the PTO.

Coast City sales taxes up sharply

All cities on the Gulf Coast from Waveland to Pascagoula, had increases in city sales tax collections in August of 1970 compared to August of 1971.

The increases, by cities, were: Waveland, plus 60 percent; Long Beach, plus 30 percent; Gulfport, plus 20 percent; Biloxi, plus 20 percent; Ocean Springs, plus 21 percent; Pascagoula, plus 13 percent; and Pass Christian, plus 13 percent.

The figures were released by the Mississippi State Tax Commission office in Jackson.

The four defense motions were filed in Hancock County Circuit Court Monday, Oct. 9.

tangle, derived from the search of the premises.

As grounds for the motion, the defense stated that the affidavit supporting the search warrant contained "false statements of fact, either deliberately made by the affiant or made in reckless disregard for the truth."

The alleged false statements include a statement that Depreo had been expelled from St. Stanislaus College in Bay St. Louis for committing arson.

The motion claims the statement is not supported by evidence, nor is a statement from Brother Joseph Donovan, S.C., which was obtained by the state.

Atchison's motion pleads that allegations in support of the search warrant to the effect that Depreo had intentionally set woods fires and was suspected of setting a fire at Hancock North Central Senior High School are not supported by fact or reliable information.

As additional grounds for his motion to suppress evidence acquired through the search warrant, the Mobile attorney told the court:

"The description given by Joy Lynn Ladner, of the assailant-to-witnesses and officers immediately after the incident at her home described a blond haired individual whereas the defendant is brunette. This description was relayed by Hancock County Chief Deputy Peterson to others investigating the case the morning of April 8, 1978."

The defense closed the motion by asking the court to "suppress any evidence or introduction of evidence which were the fruits of the illegal search and seizure."

In the motion to suppress the defendant's confession, Atchison alleges that a statement made by Depreo during interrogation "was not voluntarily given in violation of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U. S. Constitution."

In his motion on Depreo's confession, Atchison states:

"The defendant requested the right to counsel during interrogation and prior to the time the alleged statement was made but was denied (counsel) and advised counsel was unnecessary or unavailable by U.S. Naval authorities at the naval base in Norfolk, Virginia."

Atchison further alleges the confession was coerced from the defendant and the confession should thus be suppressed.

In the motion requesting the state to produce the file supposedly in Earl Ladner's possession, Atchison alleges that Ladner said, "I have my own investigation file on the case thicker than the sheriff's."

The attorney further claims that Ladner participated in the investigation of the case "...along with law enforcement officers and closely followed (them) in consultation with other officers on a day-to-day basis."

"Buck Ladner was acting under color of law as a duly appointed or deputized officer having obtained said color of authority from a duly authorized law enforcement officer in an adjoining county," the motion continues.

Atchison asks the court for "...the immediate production of any and all items obtained by the said Buck Ladner and/or included in any file he possesses or has access to or control over which has not been previously produced as ordered by the court."

"Your movant further prays that this court will order an evidentiary hearing to hear evidence and determine what evidence, if any, is due the defendant under previous orders of the court...in order to guarantee to the defendant a fair and impartial trial."

In his final motion, Atchison requests the court to issue an order to the U. S. Navy to produce files and records of naval authorities action releasing and delivering Depreo to Mississippi State authorities.

"It is requested the order of the court be in the form of a subpoena duces tecum or other order designated by the court and mailed to the Secretary of the Navy."

The four defense motions were filed in Hancock County Circuit Court Monday, Oct. 9.

RECREATION

The Seniors Center cordially invites all the beautiful people of Hancock County to participate in our Social Hour Monday, Oct. 16 at 1:30 p.m. Local merchants and organizations have been more than generous with their contributions and door prizes for our game session.

This could be your lucky day if you are 60 years of age or over. You are eligible to participate in all our programs. Newcomers can register at our Center, in Bay St. Louis, Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Refreshments of home-baked cake and a cold drink will be served.

All Seniors please bring a gift that will be sold at the "White Elephant Sale" at the same time as our Bazaar, Nov. 17 at the Center.

All Seniors who bring an item for the "White Elephant" will be rewarded at our game session Monday, Oct. 16.

So, don't forget that item that you may not need for the sale, as there is someone who needs it, and will buy it.

Then you may be lucky and find just what you have been looking for. Let's make this coming event a huge success. Please do not bring any shoes or clothing.

The weather was perfect, the entertainment outstanding, and the refreshments delicious. The birthday celebrants were in a festive mood - it was the monthly Birthday Party held to honor our Seniors, at the Bay St. Louis Center, Monday, September 25 at 1:30 p.m.

The month of September tops them all, as 19 Seniors celebrated birthdays, all of the Libra people were: Laura Mauffrey, Clarence Page, Amanda Sylvester, Frank Haman, Jeanne Haman, Emma Wright, Harwood Phaup, Bertha Boudoin, Lillian Vontour, Elizabeth Saucier, Audrey Navarez, Andrew Dille, Louise Monaly, Rosalind Freyder, Rita Marti, Jane Williams, and Aline Coyne.

The Special birthday prize of two chicken dinners, donated by Danny's Fried Chicken, was won by Andy Dille.

The door prize of dinner for two, donated by Lil Ray's Seafood Restaurant, was won by Alan Joubert.

Congratulations to the winners, and we are sure you will enjoy!

It was with much pride, that we presented one of the best entertainment programs of the year. Nicky Gordon can be classed as one of the World's Greatest Organists.

She is an accomplished musician, who manipulates all the special sounds and instruments while playing the tunes with great dexterity.

She has a Repertoire of thousands of tunes. Nicky, the Seniors loved every minute of your performance.

A fantastic surprise added attraction, Henry and Enola Punzo, who recently celebrated 46 years of wedded bliss, presented a variety of ballroom dances that was par excellence.

Being married for so many happy years, lets all in on the secret that these lovely people are not twenty-one year old kids nor fifty year old. But, believe me, you could not prove it with the poise and finesse they displayed in their performance of the waltz, jitterbug, polka, and many other types of dances.

They held all present spellbound. Henry Punzo is the manager of Werleins Music Store, located in the Edgewater Plaza.

Refreshments of home made cake and lemonade were served by our ever faithful RSVP volunteers, plus those who faithfully call to remind everyone of all of our recreational events.

A native of Bay St. Louis, she attended local schools and graduated from Bay Sr. High in the Class of 1974.

She won the coveted American Legion Award while in the eighth grade.

This Award is bestowed upon the students by the Clement Bontemps Post No. 139 for outstanding achievements in citizenship and academic accomplishments.

She is active in civic work in the community.

During her cherished spare time, she is a member of the Coast Mental Health Program, and Home Extension Advisory Committee.

Her hobby is sewing and games with her little ones.

Pam, was employed by SMPDD as a Ceta worker for the Information and Referral Department of the Center in 1975.

In 1976, she was transferred to the Day Care Center as a Program Aide.

In 1977, she was promoted to her present position as Site Manager of the Nutrition Department at the Bay St. Louis Center.

Another of those dedicated workers, Pam can be found five days a week, Monday through Friday, involved in one of her many duties of preparing menus, serving meals week days except holidays, keeping reports, and helping out with many other chores where she is needed.

Those are Pam's regular duties. Then for special parties, she orders foods and attends to the dining room being properly arrayed for the festive occasion, such as the Mexican Day Party, Oktoberfest, and Annual Bazaar. I'm sure all those well fed Seniors join with me in saying, "We are glad you are aboard, Pam."

There will be a special door prize, plus a prize for a lady and gentleman for the most unique outfit in native (German) costume. Refreshments of German chocolate cake, pretzels, and sweet cider will be served.

Prior to our Oktoberfest Celebration, a dinner of baked chicken, whole kernel corn, carrot-raisin salad, sliced pineapple, rolls, and milk will be served in the dining room of the center at noon.

NUTRITION
Continuing our policy to acquaint the readers of this column with the folks at the Center who serve you, we would now like to introduce you to some of the directors of the different programs, such as the director of nutrition, Mrs. Pam Jones.

Pam is the daughter of Mrs. and Mr. Bernard Labat, and the wife of Nathaniel Jones. She is mother of two girls and twin boys.

HERE AND THERE
Carmelita Saucier, one of our Day Care Seniors, accompanied by her granddaughter, Ms. Nina Boyd, journeyed to Chicago, Ill., to visit with her grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Boyd, Jr., a native of Bay St. Louis, now stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Station.

They both enjoyed the plane trip, and enjoyed visiting many of the local historical spots including the Sears Tower, the tallest building in the United States, and she enjoyed one of the famous Marriott Hotels.

Carmelita enjoys traveling and plans a trip in the near future to Orlando, Fla., to visit her daughter, Frances Glad, and will make a tour of Disney World.

My record is still holding fast and strong, everyone enjoys traveling, and visiting relatives, but I've yet to meet anyone who was not. Oh, so happy to be back home. Carmelita joins that great throng.

ILLNESS
We were sorry to hear Anna Marsh has been hospitalized at Oschner Foundation in New Orleans.

Anna is an RSVP volunteer, and one of my lovely ladies of the telephone committee, and an active worker at the Center in many programs.

Our prayers and thoughts for a speedy recovery, hurry back, we miss you.

BEREAVEMENT
Our condolences to the families and friends of Louis Williams, Sam Paul Kimbrell, George Kopp, Mabel Allen, and Rae Dope.

They are missed, for they brightened the corners here. But look up, there are five bright new shiny stars added to the heavens. They belonged to us for a small time in space, but now their brightness belongs to the whole Universe. That is His Divine Order.

Sailing continues throughout the year for the enthusiastic skippers. This past weekend three BWYC skippers represented the club at the annual Wadewitz Regatta in Fairhope, Alabama.

Corky Hadden, Cindy Stieffel and Rod Stieffel amassed enough points to finish fourth. Buccaneer Yacht Club was the winner with St. Andrew's Bay Yacht Club second.

On the Bay-Sunday the Portsmouth fleet set sail and took advantage of the crisp air and gentle breeze. Only four skippers competed in the race. The results are: A. Trapani, first; Basil Kenned, second; Jack Bell, third; Gary Taylor fourth.

Coming up this weekend is the monthly meeting of the Board of Directors, 7:30 p.m. Friday. Also a Ball the Blues will be held on Saturday starting around 7 p.m. Hosts and hostesses for this weekend's party are: Messrs. C. Mmes. Fred Bookhardt, Julian Lorenzen, Randle Hatton, Alvin Fietrich, Allan Clay, Wm. McCandless, and Mmes. John Cook, Ruth Walker, Margaret Ota and Sadie Necaise.

Wednesday, Oct. 18 is the Club Monthly luncheon. Come early and join in on the card game and stay for lunch. Lunch at noon.

Ross Barnett Reservoir named bass fishing tournament site

Ross Barnett Reservoir, a 50-square mile impoundment on the Pearl River in central Mississippi, will be the site of the $50,000 BASS Masters Classic, the world finals of competitive bass fishing, Oct. 25-27, 1978.

Location of the "secret site," was revealed Wednesday in a joint announcement by Ray Scott, president of the sponsoring Bass Anglers Sportsman Society (BASS), and Mississippi Gov. Cliff Finch, who proclaimed the week, "Bass Fishing Week" in Mississippi.

For bass fishermen, it is the biggest week of the year. This is what the top cast-for-cash pros have been seeking over a six-tournament qualifying series. The winner nets $25,000 cash.

The 33,000-acre, highly-managed lake is unique. Regarded as one of the country's top bass fisheries, Ross Barnett, has been a model project and blend of conservation, recreation and "maximum commercial utilization." Completed in 1965, as a five-county project, it is one of the most unique undertakings by local government without the benefit of Federal aid.

"Every water resource in the country can take a lesson from Ross Barnett," said Scott in explaining the BASS Classic's choice of a tournamant arena. "The Pearl River Valley Water Supply District decided in the beginning that they would tolerate no pollution, yet would support commercial development hand-in-hand with fishing recreation."

How has the bass fishing fared in the face of such use and fishing pressure? "This is the eighth year for the Classic," said Scott. "The event is held each year on an outstanding bass fishing lake. At Ross Barnett, I expect the total catch record of 59-pounds 15-ounces to be erased."

Scott said he based that prediction on several reasons: (1) "This is the earliest the Classic contenders have known where the tournament site will be fished. (2) Fall is a prime time for fishing on this reservoir, and there is an abundance of three to four-pound bass as well as a quantity of what the pros call 'bonus' bass over seven pounds. (3) This will be the finest, overall field of anglers to fish the Classic finals."

Also, Ross Barnett is no stranger to the Tournament Trail. Six previous BASS conducted events have been fished here. The last was April 4-6, 1973. In that Rebel Invitational, it took 72-pounds 7-ounces to grab the honors. A field of 24 top scorers from the 1978 BASS Tournament Trail qualified, along with the

of the qualifiers will be allowed to "practice" on Ross Barnett prior to the official one-day warm-up on Oct. 24,

1978, said Scott. The cooperation of the Pearl River Water Supply District, the Mississippi Game and

Rankin County Sheriff's Department, and the Mississippi Governor's office are acknowledged in assisting in the support and conduct of the Classic, according to Scott.

Sculptor's Bay statue offer considered gift to nation

Dr. Richmond Barthe's offer to create a bronze statue in honor of Louis IX, Crusader, King of France, for whom the Bay of St. Louis was named, will be a gift to the citizens of Bay St. Louis and in reality to the state of Mississippi and the nation.

"We are fortunate, indeed, as an historic society to have recognized the importance and value of this work," said Odile Carter of the Hancock County Historical Society.

Rules and regulations for erecting a public monument, as set out by the Mississippi Arts Commission, include:

1. "In order to be erected, it must be placed on permanent public property.

2. "To receive public grants and matching funds, the art commission and various foundations who fund these projects, must not grant money to organizations and historic societies."

"I have dreamed of doing this for many years, but you must know that it was not my original idea. The originator of this idea, was Miss Inez Labat of Bay St. Louis. She was my old teacher and life time friend," Dr. Barthe noted.

In 1978, Harry Ward, art professor of University of Southern Mississippi, son of Mrs. Juanita Stechmann, when talking to Dr. Barthe at an art exhibit said he was from Bay St. Louis, and drove Barthe to the Bay.

It was then that Dr. Barthe renewed his commitment to make the monument here, Ms. Carter added.

LaFontaine hopeful starter for Friday

By RICH ADAMS
Bay High quarterback Dwayne LaFontaine, though questionable, may return to limited action Friday to add to the Tigers' offensive attack against Vancleave in a Homecoming battle, according to Tiger head coach Billy Rhodes.

"LaFontaine is still questionable, with his bruised thigh. I hope to put him in the game to add a passing attack," Coach Rhodes said.

"Ferrell, Jackson, Delcuze and Parsons are still definitely out for Friday's game, along with Harrington, who is out for the season," he added.

"Vancleave has Pete Batson, a six-foot-one, 160-pound runningback who was the most valuable conference runningback last year," Rhodes continued.

"We just need a good homecoming effort to win," he added.

The Tigers lost a 20-0 contest to Long Beach last week.

Injuries threaten Pirate's ability

By RICH ADAMS
The Pass Christian Pirates travel to St. John's in Gulfport to participate in the Eagle's homecoming game.

Pirate head coach Bob Lumpkin said runningbacks Mackie Dedeaux and Robert Bailey, both with leg injuries, are doubtful starters for Friday's game.

"St. John has a good, sound team. They aren't really very big or physical, but are well coached and do things right at the right times," Coach Lumpkin said.

"We have several non-starters out along with Dedeaux, Bailey, and defensive guard Mike Whitman, and those reserve men out will hurt us depthwise," he added.

The Pirates lost last week in a 21-18 heartbreaker in the final minutes of the game when Scott Simer took a two yard touchdown in with 2:36 remaining in the final quarter.

Dedeaux scored two of the three Pirate touchdowns in last week's game, and Bailey scored four touchdowns in a 47-20 conquest over Bay High earlier in the season.

"Gametime" at Gulfport Friday night is 7:30 p.m.

Wildcats, Warriors battle

Pearl River Junior College's Wildcats will show just how good of a football team they are here Saturday night against the East Central Warriors.

After six weeks the Cats are 4-2, losing to the undefeated Jones Bobcats 17-0 and the Bulldogs 21-6. Each loss knocked the Wildcats from the nation's list of elite teams.

"An 8-2 year is not bad," Cat's head coach J.C. Arban said, "so the year is not over just because we have lost to our rivals." But the head master was quick to point out that the Homecoming bout with the solid East Central Warriors may really decide the complexion of the entire season.

"We can't let up this week," the coach said, "we have to play ball and play with the desire of a winning unit." But the task will not be easy, not at all.

The Warriors are now in third place with a 2-1 conference mark and 4-2 overall. "Warriors probably have the best offensive unit in the league," Arban said, "they can throw and run, and they can catch anything."

The game, this week will start at 8 p.m. instead of the usual 7:30 time because the 1978 Pearl River Homecoming Court will be presented before the contest.

After taking an early 6-4 lead, the Pearl River Junior College Wildcats found the going tough and were ripped by the Gulf Coast Junior College Bulldogs, 21-6 Saturday afternoon.

With the win, Gulf Coast remained undefeated in six outings while the Wildcats dropped to 4-2 on the season.

Biloxi High School and Bennie Kimble of Holmes Junior College. Coach Turk will discuss "Practice Organization and Special Situations."

MSU seeks donations

The Mississippi State University Pre-Veterinary Club is now accepting donations to finance construction of a permanent home for the school's bulldog mascot, "Bully."

"We'd like to have 'Bully' in a kennel on campus where everyone can see him," said John Tomlinson, club advisor.

"It would provide him with the same kind of exposure given to mascots at some of the other schools in the Southeastern Conference."

Persons making donations of a dollar or more will have an opportunity to win "Bully's Centennial Miss," the 4-month-old female puppy sired by the current mascot. The winner will be announced Oct. 14 during the MSU-Florida State Homecoming game.

For more information, call John Tomlinson at 325-2110.

Hawks clash with PRC Blue Devils

By RICH ADAMS
The undefeated Hancock North Central Hawks, coming from a Homecoming win against Lumberton, face a rapid-moving Pearl River Central squad Friday at HNC stadium.
The Blue Devils are gaining momentum following three straight wins, boasting a 4-2 season record.
"They are a big team, probably overall the biggest team we'll face this year," Hawk head coach Irvin Favre said.
"They have a quarterback and fullback that both weigh 200 pounds, and a line that averages 190-200 pounds. They have all that size and they are tall, too," he added.

"They are coming on strong now." PRC has played pretty much the same caliber of competition that we have met," Favre said.
Coach Favre called the PRC squad a "whole physical team," and looks for a physical game.
Hawk quarterback Vincent Adams is a doubtful starter for Friday with a bruised shoulder, and runningback Greg Ladner may be out this week with a bruised knee.
"Time will tell in the next few days of practice whether these two will start or not," said coach Favre.
The game is slated for 7:30 p.m. at HNC.

Alumni Banquets

The Pearl River College Alumni Banquet is set for Saturday at 6:15 in the college cafeteria before the annual homecoming game against East Central.

PRC's Alumni secretary, Enoch Seal, Jr., said the presentation of the Alumnus of the Year award will highlight the banquet. An autographed football, with the signatures of the players, is also awarded to the person who is the earliest graduate of the school at the banquet.

The alumni may buy tickets to the football game at the banquet and they will be given a special reserved seat section set up by the alumni.

Football, food, festivities and friendship combine at Delta State, on Saturday, October 21, for "Homecoming '78."

The day-long affair begins at 9 a.m. with campus tours of DSU's newest facility, the Ewing Education Building, and a Koffee Klatch for the classes of 1920, 1930, 1940, 1950 and 1960.

Mississippi College alumni and former students from the Bay St. Louis area are reminded that Homecoming 1978 is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 28, with registration beginning at 9 a.m. in the foyer of the B. C. Rogers Student Center in Clinton, Miss.

"Reunion With A Memory" is the theme for this year's activities with something planned for everyone.

Tickets for the Alumni Banquet may be secured by writing to the Alumni Office, P.O. Box 4027, Clinton, MS 39058.

Rocks meet Yellow Jackets Friday

By RICH ADAMS
St. Stanislaus hosts the St. Martin Yellow Jackets Friday in a Homecoming match after suffering a loss against conference leaders d'Iberville 36-10 last week.
The 10 points scored against the Warriors were the first points taken in against the d'Iberville squad in six regular season games.

"d'Iberville has a super ball club. If you play good, they make you make mistakes," said Rock-A-Chaw head coach Bill Roole about the d'Iberville team.

"St. Martin is a fine ball club, and I look for a very good game," he continued.

"If we put in as good an effort as we did against d'Iberville, I'll be happy," he added.

St. Martin defeated the Pirates of Pass Christian last week in a 21-18 victory.
Coach Bob Lumpkin of the Pirates called the Yellow Jackets an "up and coming team."

Coach Poole reported that starting tackle David Murtigh suffered a sprained ankle in last Friday's game and is doubtful as a starter in Friday's contest.

The Rocks are 3-2 overall for the season and 2-1 in the Pascagoula River Conference.

The production of "Camelot" will be directed by Chester de la Cruz and will be under the musical direction of Dr. Laurence Oden.

St. Thomas sets drama, art workshop

A Drama and Art Workshop, co-sponsored by the St. Thomas Office of Religious Education and the Diocese of Biloxi, will be held on October 28th at the St. Thomas School Gym in Long Beach.

The workshop open to individuals interested in learning more about the use of drama and art in religious education in the home with individual families or groups of families; in the classroom; or for even more ambitious projects that would call for mini-drama productions.

Mrs. Leah Davidson, Sadler consultant, and her Good News Beaver Bible Troupe from Boca Raton, Florida will conduct this workshop and will use slide movies and audience participation to enhance the participants understanding of the use of drama and art in teaching techniques.

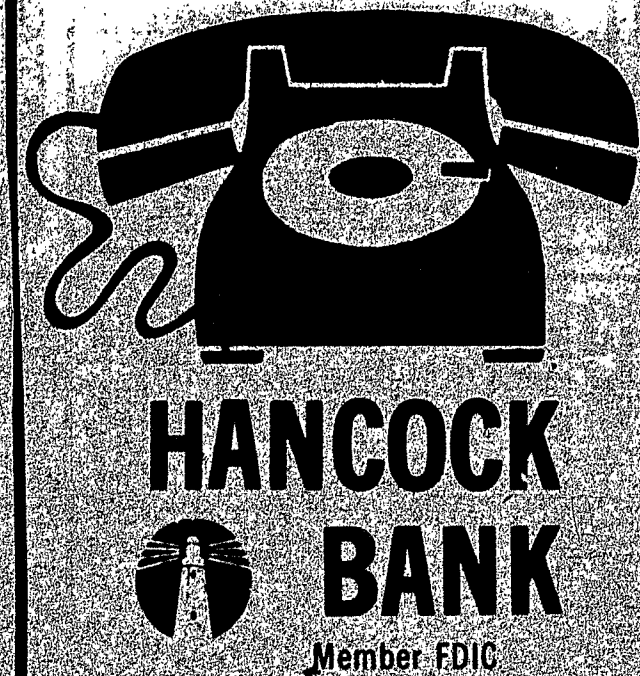

All of the student Good News Beavers have extensive theatrical background in dinner theatres, regional theater and college theater productions.

Registration will take place from 9 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. October 28th in the St. Thomas School Gym with a fee of $3 per participant.

The workshop will begin at 9:30 a.m. for lunch (drinks are provided but participants are asked to bring a bag lunch).

LIBRARY CONFERENCE - State library officials met recently with Governor Cliff Finch to make plans for the Governor's Library Conference set for February 25-27, 1979 in Jackson. The conference, one of 50 state conferences preceding a White House Conference on Library and Information Services, will provide an opportunity for Mississippians to voice their concerns and criticisms about library service in the state. Attending were, from left, Mrs. Lola Magee of Monticello, conference coordinator; Joe Forsee of Pearl, director of the Mississippi Library Commission; Governor Finch; and Jack Mulkey of Jackson, director of the Jackson Metropolitan Library System and chairman of the advisory committee for the conference.

Homemakers give to Jaws drive

At a meeting of Clermont Handcrafters last Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A.M. Thomas with Mrs. Gladys Baxter and Mrs. Lorena Bowman as co-hostesses, the group voted to give a donation to the Jaws of Life Campaign.

Mrs. Thomas, president, appointed a nominating committee composed of Mrs. William Mains, Mrs. Rose Ann Ross and Mrs. Rita Marti for election of officers at the November meeting.

She also appointed Mrs. J.C. Goodloe and Mrs. W.H. Duke as Christmas entertainment chairmen.

Christmas door decorations and novelty pot holders were displayed by members.

The meeting closed with the thought for the day, "Many a man with no family tree has succeeded because he branched out for himself."

TOMCAT F-14—America's newest air-combat weapons system, the F-14 Tomcat was designed by Grumman Aerospace Corporation for the U.S. Navy. It is considered the most advanced air superiority fighter in the world. The swing-wing, twin-engine Tomcat combines the speed and maneuverability of a dog-fighter with a unique weapons control system which can track 24 enemy targets and simultaneously attack six different threats at varied altitudes and distances. The F-14 launched Phoenix air-to-air missile has intercepted targets at distances of over 100 miles and altitudes ranging from 50 feet to over 60,000 feet. In NATO mock warfare exercises, the F-14 successfully intercepted and "destroyed" 89 of 91 scheduled raid sorties from land-based forces. (The other two raid sorties were intercepted by other air wing aircraft.) Many initial intercepts took place in excess of 100 miles from the aircraft carrier.

Mental Health to counsel members of broken homes

The Gulf Coast Mental Health Center will conduct a group for divorced and divorcing individuals and concurrently run groups of divorced persons.

Both programs will continue for 8 weeks. The first series will begin October 23 and end Dec. 11. Other groups are being developed for the future.

The program for divorced individuals is designed to provide emotional support as well as a sense of identity. The group will also help individuals learn how to deal with the issues that are encountered by the majority of divorcing persons, and is limited to fifteen individuals. These individuals must be physically separated and consider divorce imminent or they must be newly divorced. Also, there can be no former spouses participating in the same group.

The group will meet at the Gulf Coast Mental Health Center from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Pre-registration will be required for participation.

The program for children will involve helping them learn how to cope with the divorce of their parents and the loss of a stable home environment.

The child must be between the ages of 6 and 18. The number is not limited, however, preference will be given to children who have a parent participating in the adult group. This group will also be conducted at the Gulf Coast Mental Health Center, and will run parallel to the adult group. As with the adult group, pre-registration is required for group participation.

For further information concerning either of the groups, contact "Dr. Mary Anne O'Brien at the Gulf Coast Mental Health Center 1-863-1132 (toll free call).

Sullivan-Kilrain bout blocked in Bay by law

In 1883 the longest and most famous passenger train ever to run through Mississippi went north through Poycune early one morning loaded down with passengers. It was a double-header, 2 engines pulling it. All the seats were filled and the aisles were packed with men.

Never before or since has there been anything like it. People along the railroad and in the towns stared in surprise and bewilderment at this unusual phenomenon. There would have been many more men on this train if they could have gotten on it.

On this train were two of the most written about and most talked about men of that time—Sullivan and Kilrain. They were on their way to Richburg, Miss. to fight for the heavyweight championship of the world.

Jim Sims, who lived in the Yamacraw or Pine Grove area northwest of Poycune, told H.V. Henley of Eureka, California, about this unusual train. Jim Sims rode that train and saw the world famous fight, a fight that is written about and discussed down to this day.

He told Mr. Henley as follows: "The authorities would not give permission for Sullivan and Kilrain to fight in New Orleans. The fight had been advertised and multitudes of people from all over the world had gone to that city to see the fight. They then planned to have the fight just outside the city limits of New Orleans, but at the last minute the state of Louisiana would not permit the fight in that state.

"The promoters then chartered a train with all the coaches two engines could pull. Only a few of the many who wanted to go could get on the 19 coach train. They tried to get permission to put the fight on in Mississippi but it was against the law in this state.

"But anyway, the train pulled out loaded to overflowing going over the L and N in the direction of Bay St. Louis. This news was telegraphed ahead and Mississippi officers rushed to Bay St. Louis to stop the fight there.

"However, the start toward Bay St. Louis was a subterfuge to deceive the officers for, as it got out onto the edge of New Orleans, the train was switched over on to the N.O. and NE tracks and headed north.

"As the train entered Mississippi at Nicholson they began to watch for a good place to put on the fight. Toward noon, in the hottest part of a summer day, the train arrived at Richburg, just South of Hattiesburg, where there was a big open area covered in saw dust.

"The train stopped there and in a short time the big fight for the world's heavyweight championship was on.

"It was real hot and sweat poured off the fighters in streams. They fought 75 rounds. The ring in which they fought looked like a slaughter pen."

Following this description of the fight, H.V. Henley of Eureka, California, then 79 years old when this was written, wrote:

In 1893 or 1894 my step father decided to build another, larger log cabin joining the smaller one they were living in. He cut and peeled the logs and split the boards for the roof. He cut blocks from a fat lired tree for foundation blocks. The sills were cut from small lired trees. Such sills and blocks have been known to last for a hundred years.

Having hauled all the building materials to the building site it was the custom to have a house raising. On this particular occasion men came from Yamacraw and from in between to help erect the new house, many bringing their wives and children with them. All brought baskets of food. After the house was erected, they had a picnic dinner under the many oaks surrounding the house. When all that was done, the ladies went into the house and had a talkation, while the men relaxed in the shade of the lovely oaks, and swapped stories. That is when I heard Jim Sims tell the story of the Sullivan-Kilrain fight."

Drain the heater tank. Studies have shown that sediment collecting at the bottom of a water heater reduces the system's efficiency, ultimately producing higher energy bills. Every few months, you can alleviate this problem by opening the plug at the bottom of the tank and letting the water flow out until it runs clear.

ATTEND TRAINING SEMINAR—Youth court counselors Susan Malove and Jerry Sirbaugh, both of Bay St. Louis, participated in the recent Seminar for Mississippi Youth Court Counselors in Hattiesburg. The two-day program was sponsored by the Mississippi Department of Youth Services and the Mississippi Judicial College, a continuing education activity of The University of Mississippi Law Center. Counselors attended workshops emphasizing personal awareness in counseling, learning disabilities, utilization of volunteer workers, programming for institutional adolescents and case management.

Average U.S. Home May Soon Cost $78,000

The average price of a typical American home could reach the almost incredible level of $78,000 within a few years. This startling information was released in early March 1977 in a report by the Joint Center for Urban Studies of Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The price of housing in the past few years has jumped twice as fast as family incomes. Contributing to this rapid rise in the price have been inflation, government regulations, and periodic shortages of mortgage money — all of which have caused a sharp decline in housing starts since 1972.

For over three decades, Jim Walter has been building and financing homes that families of all walks of life can afford. NOTHING HAS CHANGED! If you own property, we can still custom-build a home for you for far less than "average" prices being reported in newspapers, on television and radio. YES WE CAN! Let us show you!
